MENTORS' NOTE

Good morning everyone,

If you're reading this, you're already doing something that thousands of CLAT aspirants never do—you've shown up today. That might sound like a small thing, but over the next few months you'll realise that success in CLAT is rarely decided by one brilliant mock or one 12-hour study session. It's decided by the hundreds of ordinary days where you choose to sit down and study even when you don't feel like it.

The entire CLAT Community team is rooting for you. Whenever you're stuck, ask doubts, discuss questions, and make use of the people around you. You don't have to prepare alone. We hope today's material helps you take one more step towards your dream.

Now stop reading this note and get to work. Your future self will thank you for the effort you put in today.

All the best.

DAILY AR

Passage 1 (Questions 1–6)

Eight members of a district science-fair jury sit around a rectangular table for the final round of deliberation: three members along the north edge, facing south; three along the south edge, facing north; and one member at each end of the table, at the west head and the east head. The eight are Arnav, Devika, Faraz, Gauri, Harish, Inaya, Jivan and Kiara. Jivan sits at the east head. Devika, seated on the north edge, is Kiara's immediate neighbour, and Arnav, also on the north edge, sits immediately next to Devika. Passage 2 (Questions 7–12)

At a family gathering held to celebrate a silver wedding anniversary, four separate remarks about old photographs on the wall were later written down for a memory quiz. Vivaan said: "The man in this photograph is my father's father, and the woman beside him is the mother of my father's only sister." Aarushi said: "The man in this photograph is my mother's only brother, and he has exactly one child — a son." Sarthak said: "I am married to the woman who is the only daughter of the couple in Vivaan's photograph." It was later confirmed, from the guest register, that Zoya is Vivaan's mother. No two of the eight people involved — Vivaan, Aarushi, Sarthak, Zoya, and the four people identified only through their statements — are the same person.
